

WED IN THE LIBRARY.

THIS APARTMENT AT THE JEFFERSON SCENE OF A MARRIAGE.

MR. STEIFEL AND MISS LEIBERMUTH.

One of Richmond's Most Lovely and Accomplished Daughters the Bride of a New Yorker—Elegant Breakfast Served—The Guests.

Mr. Arnold Steifel, of New York, and Miss Mattie Leibermuth, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. Frank Leibermuth, one of Richmond's best-known tobaccoconists, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony in the library at the Jefferson yesterday at high noon, and though the ceremony, which was impressively performed by Rabbi E. N. Calisch, of Beth Ahava Synagogue, was witnessed by only a few intimate friends and the nearest relatives of the contracting parties, it was one of the most brilliant social functions of the year.

Miss Leibermuth, a lovely brunette, of charming manner, has been quite prominent in society in this and other cities, and Mr. Steifel, who holds the responsible position of business manager of the New York College of Music, is equally as prominent in social circles in the metropolis.

PLANS WERE MODIFIED.

It had been expected that a brilliant entertainment would be given after the wedding, but owing to a recent affliction in the family of the bride, the plans were somewhat modified. As it was, however, the affair, though confined to a small circle, was gorgous in its every detail.

A magnificent wedding breakfast was given in the third dining-room of the hotel immediately after the ceremony, and the tables, decorations and all the appointments were beautiful and elegant.

Miss Leibermuth was attended by her maid of honor, Miss Marie Rosenstock, of Petersburg, and Mr. Steifel had as his best man his brother, Mr. Steifel, of New York. Messrs. Henry Hutzler and Alex. Marcusc acted in the capacity of masters of ceremony.

THE BRIDE'S DRESS.

The bride was exquisitely gowned in satin dress, and wore a bodice covered with point applique and a veil, which was caught with a magnificient spray of diamonds, the gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids, and entered the library, which had been beautifully decorated, for the occasion by Harvey, leaning on the arm of her father. She was preceded to the altar, which had been temporarily erected, by the masters of ceremony, who wore the conventional dress suits with boutonnieres from the bride's bouquet and the maid of honor, Miss Rosenstock, who was attired in white organdie over pink satin, carried an enormous shower bouquet of Madame Tussaud roses.

The groom, and his best man, met his bride at the altar, and the impressive and beautiful ceremony of the Jewish faith was performed by Dr. Calisch.

THE WEDDING BREAKFAST.

From the altar the bridal party marched direct to the dining hall, where the sumptuous breakfast awaited them and were followed by the wedding guests. All were seated at a round immense table forming a hollow square, and the honors were done by the bride and groom, Mrs. Steifel being seated at the head and her husband at the foot of the table, while their guests sat on either side of them.

The tables were most gorgeously decorated. Within the center of the room were banked four trees, a mass of palms and various growing plants, and on the tables were scattered in great profusion cut-flowers of almost every variety and description. The effect, as can well be imagined, was startlingly beautiful. At such plate was a lovely hand-painted menu-card, together with a satin cake-box, on which were engraved in gilt the initials "L. & S." and the date, and in which lay a slice of the bridal cake.

THE GUESTS PRESENT.

The guests were seated with little delay, and, besides the bride and groom, there were seated around the festal board Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leibermuth, Mrs. R. Held, Rev. Mr. E. N. Calisch, Mr. Lewis Stern, Mr. R. Scheverin, Mr. and Mrs. Sam. Steifel, Mr. Henry Hutzler, Miss Sara Rohr, Mr. Lewis Rosenstock, Miss Florine Hirsh, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Euker, Mr. Lewis Leibermuth, Mr. Edward Rohr, Miss Salille May, Mr. Leon Leibermuth, Mrs. C. D. Roy, Mr. and Mrs. Sam. Cohen, Mr. Mortle Steifel, Miss Mabel Todd, Mr. Joseph Silverberg, Mrs. Estelle Hirsh, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Rosenstock, Mr. and Mrs. Moses Rosenstock, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Rosenstock, Mr. Meyer Heller, Miss Marion Levy, Mr. Alex. Marcusc, Miss Marie Rosenstock, Mr. Abe Stiefel, and Mr. and Mrs. Elias Peyer.

FAMILY PARTY AT HOME.

The most tempting viands were served in a manner that reflected great credit upon the hotel management, and it was after 2 o'clock before the merry party arose from the board. The bridal party were then driven direct to the handsome residence of Mr. and Mrs. Leibermuth, at No. 1111 Grove avenue, where a family party was held, and the many handsome presents, including a collection of silver, and other equally as costly and valuable articles, were inspected.

At 7:15 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Steifel embarked on the north-bound train for a tour of the North. They will visit Washington, Boston, Niagara, Montreal, and other Canadian cities, and will return to New York, where they will make their residence at the New Netherlands Hotel.

Death of Mrs. M. A. Danforth.

Mrs. Margaret A. Danforth died at her home, in this city, just after noon yesterday. She was in the 71st year of her age. Mrs. Danforth was a native of this city, where she spent her long and useful life. She was known and loved by a large circle of friends. She was for a number of years an active member of the Richmond Home Association, which has under its care the Orphan Asylum, corner of Leigh and Seventh streets.

Mrs. Danforth had been in feeble health for several years, but to the last her interest in and affection for the Grace Street Presbyterian church, of which she was a faithful and devoted member, never failed. She bore her prolonged suffering with Christian patience.

Seventh-Street Christian Church.

The bad weather of last night did not deter the crowd that nearly filled the Seventh-Street Christian church to hear Rev. E. L. Powell, of Louisville. Although Mr. Powell stated from the pulpit that he was feeling badly, he delivered the best sermon of this series, at the conclusion four persons professed religion.

To-night Mr. Powell will preach on "Seeking and Saving the Lost." Mr. J. W. Tribbett will sing to-day. The usual services will be held to-day 4 P. M., ladies' meeting, 8 P. M., preaching. The people are cordially invited.

The Beauty of Youth.

Health is the preserver of the bloom of youth, and with the loss of health the beauty passes away. The great destroyer of health is disease. Only the specialist who has devoted his life to studying them can cure chronic disease. Dr. Greene, of Fourteenth street, New York city, the world-famous specialist, has found the true remedies for the cure of diseases after years of investigation. You can consult Dr. Greene personally or by letter free. If you need the aid of the highest skill, call or write to Dr. Greene to-day. He can cure you. His treatment by correspondence assures you of a cure.

Must Do Four Days' Selling in One.

Under no consideration can the unwanted wares be allowed to remain. The bargains to-day will be like the vivid flashes of a summer storm—quickly gone, and gone forever. The reason of this is clear, for the newest and most wanted wares will be found in our remnant pile, whenever the lots are broken. If they have been here a week or day they go down to the remnant level.

Be on hand early, and be careful that you buy what you want, for nothing will be exchanged or taken back.

Guide tickets as to present price, quantity, and former price, will be found on each article.

The flood-gates are open, and
